"THE CAMPUS BEAUTIFUL"

Ellis Hall and the Sun Dial

Construction of the Beautiful Alumni Memorial Building to Begin at Early Date

Large Number of Firms Bid for Contract

In a room crowded with seventy-five men, all of whom were intensely interested in the same thing—but from varying standpoints—the bids for the erection of the Ohio University Alumni Memorial Auditorium were opened at 10 o'clock, Saturday, April 2, by the State Architect, Mr. Herbert B. Briggs, before the President of the University and the buildings committee of the university Board of Trustees.

The occupants of Dean Chubb's classroom in Ewing Hall included in their number state officials, representatives of contracting firms and individuals guarantee bondsmen, alumni representatives, university trustees and executives, newspapermen, and the associated architect, Mr. Howell, of the firm of Howell & Thomas.

The occasion was one looked forward to by hundreds of alumni for almost five years and surpassed in widespread interest any similar event in the history of the school.

The opening and reading of the bids was conducted with an almost ritualistic decorum. The sealed proposals, submitted on official forms, were first opened by Prof. L. J. Addicott, professor of Civil Engineering and Supervising Architect of the Ohio University, and then passed to Mr. Briggs who read the bids on the various items, and combinations of items, involved in the construction and equipment of the building. The figures as read were recorded by Mr. Scott, of the state architect's office, and checked by Mr. George C. Parks, Ohio University treasurer and treasurer of the Auditorium Fund.

It became apparent early in the process of opening the bids that the proposals of the contractors were going to be altogether favorable to the project and that the building committee would have the advantage of the most fortunate combination of circumstances in recent years; namely, that, because of a present tendency to dullness in the building trades, numbers of high-grade firms were seeking the job at a low figure in order to keep their men and equipment actively employed, and that the general price level of building materials is slightly lower than in recent past years.

Bids on four separate contracts were received. Those contracts were for, (1) excavating and building, (2) heating and ventilating, (3) plumbing, and (4) electric wiring and installation.

On the first, or major contract, proposals were received from eleven of the largest and most reputable firms throughout the state, located in Cleveland, Toledo, Dayton, Columbus, Huntington, W. Va., Marietta, Portsmouth, and Athens. The bids ranged in amount from $226,953.00, submitted by the Chappellear-Gardner Co., Portsmouth, O., to $255,600.00 proposed by Foreman and Putnam, Marietta, O. On this contract Charles P. Kircher, Athens, was second lowest bidder with a proposal of $236,950.00.

Five plumbing contractors bid for the plumbing work. The lowest bid on the combined contracts for plumbing, heating and ventilating was that of the Esswein Plumbing and Heating Co., Columbus, which was in the sum of $22,690.00. The next lowest was that of the J. H. Myers Plumbing Co., Mt. Vernon, O., for $23,680.00.

Eleven bids were received from electrical concerns for the electrical wiring and installation of equipment contract. The Electric Power Co., Cleveland, O., with a bid of $11,628.00, was lowest, while the Walsh Electric Co., Athens, bid $11,900.

The Grinnell Sprinkler company bid $555.00 for the installation of an automatic sprinkler system on the stage. This sprinkling system is one of many devices that will be installed as a means of combatting possible flames and rendering the building absolutely fire-proof.

F. W. BUSH
Auditing Com. Chairman

The lowest combination of bids for the entire work of constructing the building totaled $261,826.00. This figure does not include the cost of interior decorating, furnishings, opera chairs, stage equipment, pipe organ, finishing the alumni room, and many comparatively minor items.

The large number of bids with their provisional clauses covering additions and deductions for alternative proposals was carried back to Columbus by Mr. Briggs who promised immediate action in the tabulation and survey of them. At the time of going to press (April 6) the recommendation of Mr. Briggs had not yet been received but was expected momentarily. The buildings committee of the university trustees will be convened as soon as the state officer's recommendation is filed and the contracts awarded to the lowest bidders. Work on the building will then proceed at once.

It will be specified in the contract that the building be completed and ready for occupancy by September, 1928. It is estimated, however, that the Chappalear-Gardner Co. will be able to finish their work in slightly over a year and that all other contracts will be fulfilled within the same time. When the building is finally turned over to the university for its use the school will be provided with a much-needed auditorium seating 3,000 people and one adequate to its needs for all auditorium purposes. It will be one of the finest of its size in the state and unquestionably superior to that of any other college or university in Ohio.

The auditorium will be located on the east side of the campus with the front nearly sixty feet back (south) of the McGuffey Elms, the rear extending to the present walk running east and west across the campus by the sun dial. Its dimensions, over all, will be 175 feet long by 120 feet wide.

A slight grading, together with a landscaping of the campus immediately about the building, and the necessary changes in the principal walks, are contemplated as means to create an harmonious group effect of campus structures.

The building will be fire-proof throughout with structural steel framework, masonry exterior and interior walls of brick; stone-trimmed brick for the exterior. The floors will all be of re-enforced concrete, except the stage which will be floored with maple with underlying concrete. Terrazzo floors will be found in the foyer, vestibule, and rest rooms. (Sand-finished plaster and ornamental plaster work, decorated in an appropriate color scheme, will make up the interior finish.)

The stage and dressing rooms of the new building, when finally furnished, will be as adequately equipped as the most modern theatre. Provision will be made for the subsequent installation of a large pipe organ which will complete the building for use for the finest musical concert or recital, or the most elaborate dramatic production.

Upon entering the building through the north, or main, entrance one will pass through a lobby, or vestibule, 41 feet wide and 18 feet deep. Off the lobby, on one side, will be a ticket office and, on the other, a check room.

Continuing through the lobby one will enter a spacious foyer from which four large doors will give access to the main auditorium floor which will be 104 feet wide by 104 feet long. Stairways at both ends of the foyer will lead up to the mezzanine and balcony floors and down to the basement.

The main floor of the auditorium proper will hold approximately 2,800 seats and will present an interesting problem to the contractor inasmuch as it will be "bowled" both from front to back and from side to side. Thirty-four rows of seats will be placed on this floor, the rear row having an elevation of 5½ feet above the front row. There will be eight exits from the room.

The stage will be 92 feet wide and 27 feet deep. It will be 44 feet from the floor of the stage to the roof above. The proscenium, or stage front, will be 55 feet wide and 20 feet high. (Twelve dressing rooms—three on each of four floors—will be finished up off the left side of the stage when money for this purpose is available. The corresponding area on the other side will not, for the present, be finished but can later be adapted to any use.)

The orchestra pit in front of the stage will be 45 feet wide and 8 feet at its greatest depth, accommodating a twenty piece orchestra. Large concert and symphony orchestra will, of course, use the stage proper.

On the mezzanine floor there will be a foyer, telephone booths, and men's and women's rooms. There will be two entrances to the balcony from this floor. Steps at the end of the foyer will lead up to the balcony floor. The entire balcony will provide for approximately 1,200 seats arranged in 20 rows. A steel projection booth for moving picture machines and spot-lights will be located in the extreme back of the balcony. The distance from the booth to the center of the stage will be about 140 feet. The elevation of the rear row of seats will be a matter of 22 feet; each receding row rising an average of ten inches.

Graduates In Three States Gather for Annual Chapter Reunions

High Degree of Success Marks All Meets This Year

The reports of the meetings of the Pittsburgh, Chicago, and Columbus alumni groups, deferred from the last issue of The Ohio Alumnus, are given below. The success which characterized these reunions was quite equal to that which has marked preceding get-togethers this year with an unusual degree of uniformity.

Meetings scheduled, but which have not yet been held, are those planned for the Ohio Valley chapter, at Wheeling, W. Va., on April 23; the Fairfield County chapter, at Lancaster, Ohio, on May 13; and the Mahoning Valley chapter, at Youngstown, Ohio, on April 30.

Dr. H. R. Wilson, '96, will be the guest speaker at the Wheeling and Lancaster meetings while Prof. A. A. Atkinson, '91, will attend the Youngstown reunion as a campus representative.

Pittsburgh—After a few years of inactivity the Pittsburgh alumni chapter is again very much alive. Dr. H. P. Kohberger, '99, started the ball rolling for a meeting on March 12 but on account of illness was forced to turn the work over to Mr. H. W. Hoisington, '17, whose efforts were rewarded by a splendid response to the invitations and a good attendance at the dinner held at the University Club of Pittsburgh. Thirty-four Ohio sons, daughters, and friends made up the party.

Mr. Hoisington, in a pleasing way, made the introductions of the evening, presenting first of all Bishop F. J. McConnell, of the Methodist Church, who spoke highly of President Bryan and his work at Ohio University. He also expressed his appreciation of the fact that the university had conferred an honorary degree upon him some five years ago.

Prof. C. N. Mackinnon, of the English department of the Arts College, was the next speaker. Prof. Mackinnon responded to the toast, "The New Ohio University", in which he disclosed to those naturally somewhat out of touch with affairs of the day at their Alma Mater, the changes that are constantly taking place.

Dr. Kohberger spoke briefly, following Bishop McConnell and Prof. Mackinnon, after which the nominating committee, composed of Mr. H. S. Hopkins, '15, and Mr. L. E. Kilbury, '11-2yr., presented the following report. For president, Mr. H. W. Hoisington; for secretary-treasurer, Mrs. M. H. Williamson, '03. The two nominees came to office by unanimous election.

Chicago—The dinner-meeting of the Chicago branch of the Ohio University Alumni Association was held, March 19, at the LaSalle Hotel, Chicago, with an attendance of twenty-nine.

The group was called together by Prof. John E. Snow, '92, of the Armour Institute, and Mrs. A. H. Carpenter, whose services in the Chicago sector have been long and faithful. The fine attendance is evidence in itself of splendid efforts in behalf of alumni activities.

Dr. W. A. Matheny, '08, professor of Civic Biology and Botany, Ohio University, was the special guest and speaker of the evening. He was presented to the group by Prof. F. M. Porter, of the University of Illinois, who acted as master of ceremonies. After Dr. Matheny's address each alumnus responded with a toast and pledged future support to his Alma Mater.

A pleasing feature of the evening were two vocal solos rendered by Miss Frances Hatch, '22, of Athens, at present a student of music in Chicago.

The following officers were elected to serve for the next year. President, Prof. Snow, secretary-treasurer, Mrs. Carpenter. Program committee: Dr. Lena Hatfield, Miss Faye Baker, '09-ex, Mrs. R. P. Ashbaugh, '13-2yr., and Mrs. Carpenter.

Columbus—The Ohio University folk in Ohio's capital city, and from thereabouts, held their annual dinner-dance in the ball room of the Southern Hotel on the evening of March 23. The affair was a distinct success and was thoroughly enjoyed by the sixty-three persons present.

Following an informal reception the Ohio University Varsity Male Quartet sang two numbers which were well received. These singers also contributed quartet numbers between courses of the dinner.

Brief introductions by the toastmaster, Mr. George W. Tooill, '05, president of the chapter, preceded the addresses of President E. B. Bryan and the Alumni Secretary. Because of the feature of entertainment which was to follow no other speakers were called upon.

While the tables were being removed from the ball room the entire group joined in singing university songs from the new books lately compiled by the Alumni Association. Dancing followed immediately, to the strains of a five-piece orchestra, and continued until eleven-thirty o'clock.

Besides Mr. Tooill, the other officers who assisted in the work incident to the 1927 meeting were Miss Esther Helen Burns, '96, secretary and Mr. Robert E. Rucker, '14, treasurer. The officers elected for the coming year are Mr. C. E. Stailey, '12, president, Mrs. Walter Shapter (Margaret Durrett, '19), secretary, and Mr. J. G. Case, Jr., '11, treasurer.

The following rosters are of those persons attending the Pittsburgh, Chicago, and Columbus meetings.

Trustees Appointed

The names of F. W. Bush, '92, B. Ped., and Dr. Charles E. Holzer were sent to the state senate by Governor Donahey, on Feb. 11, for appointment to the Board of Trustees of Ohio University. Both of the governor's selections were later approved.

Mr. Bush is a graduate of Ohio University and a resident of Athens. He was reappointed for the term ending May 14, 1934.

Dr. Holzer is a surgeon and head of the Holzer Hospital, Gallipolis, Ohio. He was appointed to succeed Dr. C. W. Cookson, '95, A. B., '07, A. M., Urbana, Ohio, for the term ending May 14, 1933.

The '27 - '28 Music Course

The committee in charge of the Ohio University Music-Lecture Course has already undertaken consideration of the various numbers to be offered next year.

Among the musical numbers which are very likely to be scheduled are recitals and concerts by Mme. Schumann-Heinke, Jacques Thibaud, French violinist; Sousa's Band, and one of the country's leading symphony orchestras. Other possible choices are The English Singers, Dussolini Gianni, Italian soprano; and Reinald Werrenrath. No intimation as to the identity of the lecturers has as yet been given.

❖ From The Editor's Desk ❖

At Last! At Last! At Last!

Elsewhere in the magazine is an article containing such news as should delight the hearts of those who have patiently awaited the consummation of a long and arduous campaign for funds for the erection of an alumna memorial auditorium. It should likewise remove all fear of failure from the minds of those few who have professed an honest doubt as to the ultimate success of the project. The auditorium is an assured fact.

Within a short time after the magazine goes to press - a matter of days only - the contracts for the general construction of the building will be awarded and contracts for as much additional work as the prompt payment of outstanding pledges will permit of.

The contracts which will be let are those for which the money is now available and will not include several extremely important items necessary to complete the building for use as intended. For instance, there is no money available for the interior decorating, tinting and coloring of the huge assembly room. There is, now, no money to finish the Alumni Room in the basement or the dressing rooms off the stage. There is no money for the electrical stage equipment, for the heating tunnel connecting the building with the trunk line of the university heating system, for a motor-generator set required for the motion picture projector, for a high-tension electrical service line necessary to connect the building with the university power plant, for a fire-proof, asbestos curtain for the stage, or for the sandstone flagging which it is desired to lay as an approach to the building. All of these items were included in alternate proposals made by the bidders on April 2 but none of them can be contracted for until the money for them is in hand.

We will have our building. There is no shadow of a doubt about that. But in what shape or state of completion we shall finally have it is in the hands of those, whose partially or wholly unpaid subscriptions total approximately $30,000, to determine. Individual subscriptions to the number of 3,112 have been made to the fund, 2385 of which had been paid in full on April 1, 1927. The names of those who have thus far redeemed their pledges for the full amount and the sums subscribed, are listed on other pages of this magazine. Of the pledges not represented in the "paid-up" list, over one-fourth have had partial payments recorded to their credit.

An attempt is being made to place a copy of this issue of The Ohio Alumnus in the hands of every person who subscribed to the auditorium fund whether his subscription has been paid or not. To those subscribers who do not find their names inscribed on the published roll, we address this earnest appeal that they determine to redeem their pledges at once; that they see the game through to the end, thus enabling the building committee to finish the building and equip it as all will want it and to do so as the work of construction progresses and not after a period of months or years. The thirty thousand dollars pledged, but unpaid, will finish the job.

Shall we dedicate the building next year with an undecorated assembly room, with no Alumni Room for our dedicatory dinner and "sans" the other features necessary to a maximum utility of the building, or will we dedicate a beautiful building, complete to the last detail, and one of which we will everlastingly be proud? Which will it be? The receipt of, or failure to receive, the unpaid dollars will determine the matter.

A Thankless Job

It is the almost certain reward of all persons, who, by reason of the necessity for the promotion and management of community or cooperative enterprises by a few in the interest of the many, permit themselves to be drafted for the work and who give unselfishly of unremunerated time and thought, that they are allowed to pass from the stage with no vote of thanks and, indeed, usually, with the uncharitable criticisms of their beneficiaries ringing in their ears for every human error it may have been their unfortunate lot to commit.

Let it not be so in the case of the men who have guided to so near completion the work of the alumni auditorium campaign - Mr. F. W. Bush, Judge L. G. Worstell, Judge E. D. Sare,

On The Campus

"Y" Offices Filled

The Ohio University Y. M. C. A. will be headed by Everette Shimp, Basil, Ohio, next year according to a preference made known by the members of the organization at a recent polling of votes. Shimp is a sophomore in the College of Liberal Arts.

Other officers elected were: Glenn Cole, Toledo, O., vice-president; Kenneth Coulter, Toronto, O., secretary; and Donald Grassbaugh, Danville, O., treasurer.

Nominations have been made for the executive positions of the three major women's organizations of Ohio University; viz., the Women's League, the Y. W. C. A., and the Women's Athletic Association. Following nominations by committees in each of the three organizations a "clearing house" committee, appointed by the executive committee of the Women's League, met and eliminated the duplication of names that appeared on more than one ticket. The election of officers will be by ballot and will take place on April 8.

Choice of Sermons

"Which sermon would you go farthest to hear?"

This question was asked of 125 Ohio University students who were given an opportunity to check their preference of fifty or more topics.

"Saving Life Through Losing It," received the greatest number of votes for first preference. "What Is Your Life?" rated second. "How Big Is God's Universe?" was the third most interesting to the 125 students.

Other topics of interest were rated in their respective order:

"Putting Religion Into Life," "The Worth of the Not Worth While," "Making and Keeping Our Nation Christian," "Jesus, His Childhood and Youth," "Casting Our Burdens on the Lord," "The Motive Power in Christian Service."

The students were also requested to check the general subjects upon which they would like to hear sermons preached. "The Meaning of God in Human Experience," received the most votes for first preference, "What the Church Expects From Its Young People" received the second choice, while "A Christian's Life Work", was third in preference.

The largest numbers of votes on the topics were given to such topics as "The Modern Young Woman", "The Modern Church", and similar subjects, but they did not receive a sufficient number to rate them as preference.

Education Students Honored

Eleven Ohio University students were elected to the Omega chapter of Kappa Delta Pi, honorary educational fraternity, according to an announcement made March 31.

The names and addresses of the students: Hazel K. Bell, Zanesville; Margaret Duncan, Sidney; Howard Danford, Zanesville; Charlotte Lax, Nelsonville; Ruby LeVier, Gibsonburg; Jessie Lortz, Amesville; Harold Nichols, Lebanon; and Chester Thomas, Gillespieville.

What's A Director To Do?

The Green and White, campus publication, gives voice to the above query with the following comment.

"They stole our cigarettes and we tolerated it, they elected the last president and we put up with it, the usurper our chair at the barber shop and we stood for it. And now they play in the band, and we like it.

"Miss Irene Yette Brooke, of Cleveland, and Miss Vergie Lee Taylor, of Nashville, Tennessee, play saxophone and cornet, respectively, in the University band.

"This year, for the first time in the University's history, women are playing in the band. It never had been the custom, and Director Gill must have been a little upset when he saw the two coeds among the candidates for the organization. But when two girls arrive, what is a director to do?

"With Miss Brooke he asked her if she had ever played before and he found out that she had played in her high school orchestra and band for three years, in the Moonlight Sereaders, and in the massed bands of the city of Cleveland under John Philip Sousa. So he had to say, "All right," but he had to throw away a perfectly good cigar, for some girls do not like smoking.

"Much has been written about the so-called southern drawl. But when you put it through a trumpet—it gains a place for the second sister. Way down in Alabama there is the Sylacauga Symphony orchestra, and then there is the Schall band, and the Avondale band of Birmingham (pronounced Bum-ing-haam). And Miss Taylor has added tone to all three.

"What is a poor director going to do? Why that's easy—bring his wife along. And he does."

A Campus Leader

Almost four years ago a young man came to Ohio University from Perry, Ohio. In the meantime he has so creditably established himself on the campus of his elected school that it requires no stretch of the imagination or conscience to include him in the series of "campus leaders" whose undergraduate activities have been reported this year in The Ohio Alumnus.

Clarence H. Hudson, '27, A. B. in Com., is president of Torch, men's honor society, and president of Kappa Psi Alpha, his social fraternity. He is a member of the Varsity "O" Association, Men's Inter-Fraternity Council, Commerce Club, Honor Commerce Club, Square and Compass fraternity, and the varsity track squad. Last year he was a member of the Social Activities Advisory Board, and captain of the track team. He was captain of the yearling football team in his first year and a varsity quarterback the following season. Further than to add that Clarence has recently won the heart of one of Ohio University's most talented daughters nothing more need be said to substantiate the editor's judgment.

CLARENCE H. HUDSON
President of Torch

Torch "Sing" Next Month

Arrangements have been completed for the annual "sing", sponsored by Torch, men's honorary fraternity, which will be held in front of Lindley Hall on the evening of May 2. This contest is open to all fraternity groups on the campus, the winner being awarded a beautiful silver cup which was given by Dr. Blaine R. Goldsberry, '14, B. S. Three judges have been selected from the faculty of the university.

Each fraternity will sing three songs, two of their own choosing and the third a contest piece, "Beloved Ohio", which all must sing. The decisions of the judges will be based upon tone, enunciation, balance, and expression.

The School of Commerce

The first departmental catalog of the School of Commerce, Ohio University, is in the form of a university bulletin and is now being mailed to the graduates of the school and all others interested in it.

One outstanding development within the last year is the expansion of the department of Finance. Seven courses are now offered in this field. Prof. Milo J. Kimball, formerly of Boston University, was added to the faculty last fall as an associate professor of Finance.

The enrollment in the school this year numbers 396. A total of 231 are taking work leading to the degree of Bachelor of Arts in Commerce. Twenty-six young women are taking courses leading to the degree of Bachelor of Secretarial Science (B. S. S.). One hundred students, anticipating other degrees, are electing work in commerce classes.

One hundred fifty-one students have graduated from the school since it was established as a separate unit in 1920. The first class was composed of two members. Last year's class numbered 39.

University Budget Well Treated

Appropriations for five of Ohio's six tax-supported educational institutions for the next biennium, as recommended in Governor Donahey's budget, were cut a total of $614,365.50 by the educational institutions section of the House finance committee of the legislature on March 22.

Appropriations recommended by Donahey totaled $12,000,812.97 as against $16,742,341.83 requested by the six schools.

Reductions in the governor's executive budget (which, itself, totaled some four and three fourths millions less than the amount asked by the institutions) were made by the committee as follows: Ohio State University, $262,960.50; Bowling Green State Normal College, $257,920.00; Kent State Normal College, $98,250.00; Miami University, $61,660.00; and Wilberforce University (colored), $42,000.00.

The appropriation for Ohio University recommended by the governor was increased $91,075.00 by the finance committee. The committee's action, if finally approved by the legislature, will bring Ohio's appropriation very close to the total budget as first submitted and will prove the confidence of the law-makers in the administration.

Track Squad Has Quartet of Outstanding Men Failure to Abide by Training Rules Causes Action

With the Ohio Relays at Columbus only three weeks ahead, the Ohio track team has been having daily practice outdoors with the largest squad ever recruited for the track sport. Thirty-one men are on the squad now. Of these, Hudson, Percelle, Macklin, and Terven are outstanding. This is the last year on the team for Hudson and Percelle and from all appearances it will be their best.

Hudson hails from Perry, O., and was last year's captain. Coach Bill Herbert believes that he will negotiate the high hurdles in 13 seconds this season which will entitle him to some respect among the hurdle sprinters.

Percelle, a Zanesville boy, is to be entered in the mile and two-mile events. He has shown great improvement over last year and has an excellent judgement of pace.

Macklin, of Delaware, is the all-around man on the squad. He is to enter five events, the sprint, quarter-mile, shot put, discus throw, and broad jump. He is six feet tall and weighs 175 pounds.

Terven, Pittsburgh, Pa., is the leading member of the squad in the 100-yard division. He is a sophomore and, in contrast to Macklin, is very stockily built.

Following the Ohio Relays the Bobcats will participate in a triangular meet with Wittenberg and Denison at Granville on April 21. On May 7 a dual meet is scheduled with the Bearcats at Cincinnati. Another triangular meet is booked for May 14 with Muskingum and Kenyon furnishing the opposition at New Concord. The B. A. A. meet will be entered at Granville on May 20 and 21 and the Ohio Conference competitions at Cincinnati, the next week, May 27 and 28.

No basketball letters will be given to a majority of the members of this year's basketball team, the faculty committee on athletics decided on March 24.

The decision was made because the team had broken training rules during the playing season. "For several seasons," said Professor C. N. Mackinnon, chairman of the committee, "There has been a tendency by athletes to break training rules. By taking such action, we hope to enforce training rules in the future."

Members of the basketball team were brought before the board and testified as to how they observed or failed to observe training rules. Because of their frankness, the athletic committee decided to award the letters to them next year if they observed training rules during the next basketball season.

The decision of the athletic committee amounts to probation periods of one year for members of the basketball team. If any man on the team goes out for another sport and violates training rules he will be dropped from that sport and will forfeit his right to a basketball letter next year.

Eisenbrey is the only member of the team who graduates this year. He has been on the team three years. All the others have one or more years to play.

"A move to rescind the letters entirely was made," said Mr. Mackinnon, "but since athletes are even encouraged by students to break training rules at Ohio University the committee decided to substitute the one-year probation period."

Mr. Mackinnon compared the situation here with that in other schools. "The student body compels its athletes to observe training rules in most of the other colleges."

The athletic committee feels that the men were perfectly honest in their testimonies as to breaking the rules. Members of the committee are: O. C. Bird, director of the School of Physical Education; B. T. Grover, head basketball coach; F. B. Gullum, associate professor of Chemistry; O. R. Latham, professor of Education; and C. N. Mackinnon, professor of English and chairman of the committee.

The men who would have received the varsity "O" for basketball are: Eisenbrey, Dubois, Bayless, and Macklin. Only two men, Walton and Burkholder will be awarded letters. Williams is the only one of six men slated to receive numerals who will get them at this time.

While the action of the athletic committee may, at first thought, seem drastic, to those who are familiar with the growing attitude of disregard for training rules on the part of Ohio University athletes, the action of the faculty men is really as lenient as any that could have been devised. Students and faculty, alike, are now agreed that something must be done to inspire a greater loyalty to the teams and a higher regard for the commonly accepted rules for physical conditioning and that the recent move was a step in the right direction.

Hard Hitting, Reliable Fielding---Doubtful Pitching

The success of Ohio's 1927 baseball season will depend upon the pitchers, Coach Don Peden believes. The other departments of the team are fairly well balanced but only one pitcher, "Peg" Fuller, has seen much service on a college diamond. Since Sweeney, the most dependable hurler last year, is ineligible, it now appears as though most of the pitching burden will fall upon Fuller with Barfoot, Hoyt, and Frost to be called upon for relief and emergencies.

The first team has had little difficulty in defeating the "Yannigans" in the early practice games. Long hits and fairly reliable fielding have marked the play thus far.

Just who will draw the assignments from Coach Peden for the opening game against Miami on April 15 has not been indicated. Peden is experimenting with several infield and outfield combinations and will likely make few decisions before the season opens.

The schedule: Apr. 15, Miami, away; Apr. 16, Cincinnati, away; Apr. 23, Wittenberg, here; Apr. 26, Marietta, away; Apr. 30, Wesleyan, here; May 3, Denison, away; May 7 Wittenberg, away; May 11, Marietta, here; May 14, Wesleyan, away; May 18, Cincinnati, here; May 23, Miami, here; May 25, Denison, here.

Mary L. Mercer passed the Civil Service examination in March and has been appointed to the staff of the state department of Juvenile Research at Columbus, Ohio.

School of Physical Education Has Interesting Dept.

The department of Orthopedic Gymnastics is a distinct and unique division of the School of Physical Education of Ohio University. Charles D. Giauque, associate professor of Physical Education, is in charge of this department and teaches medical gymnastics and Kinesiology.

Students who have some physical defect, deformity, or weakness are assigned to one of the classes in corrective gymnastics. Here they are given exercises to develop the particular muscles whose weakness has resulted in the defects. Each man is given individual attention and his particular case studied. The cases of no two men are alike and no two will be found doing the same kind of exercise since their physical defects are varied. There are cases of round shoulders, hollow back, spinal curvature, hernia, poor posture, weak feet, heart trouble, injured knees and general weakness which this department is handling. A certain part of the class period is also devoted to exercise tending to bring about a general development of the entire body.

Tennis Candidates Out Early

Eight aspirants for places on the varsity tennis team made an appearance for the first practice session of the season late in March. The number was expected to be doubled within a short time. The courts at Ohio Field have been reconditioned and are in good shape.

The eight men first reporting to Coach Bird were Walton, Columbus; McConihay, Athens; Newhard, Carey, O., all of last year's team, and Burkholder, Lakewood; Lutz, Mansfield; Runkle, Sidney; and Garrett, Athens, new men.

The tennis schedule: April 9, Cincinnati, here; April 16, Ohio Wesleyan, here; April 20, Denison, away; April 23, Muskingum, here; May 12, Cincinnati, away; May 20-21, B. A. A. at Granville.

Hoisington—With many and abject apologies the editor confesses to an unintentional slight offered to Master Harland W. This in spite of the fact that he notified us of his arrival at an early date. Harland, Jr., is the second son of Mr. Harland W. Hoisington, '17, A. B., and Mrs. Hoisington (Helen J. Wenzell, Home Ec. '16) and was born, Oct., 23, 1926. A third child is a girl. Construction To Begin Early

In the basement arrangements have been made for an Alumni Room, 32 feet by 68 feet, for use for social functions. A feature of this room will be a large fire-place surrounded by beautiful oak paneling. A kitchen, adjoining the alumni room and communicating with the outside by means of a corridor, will have dimensions of 20 by 30 feet. A large Men's Lounge and equally commodious Women's Rest Rooms will also be located in the basement. The remainder of this floor will be given over to a transformer room, switchboard room, and heating chambers. Underneath the stage there will be an orchestra room, a storage room and men's and women's rooms. The orchestra room will have direct connection with the orchestra pit.

It is anticipated that citizens of Athens and university students will be afforded an unusual and interesting spectacle in the erection of the building's steel framework, the estimates calling for the use of 450 tons of steel girders, columns, trusses, and re-enforcements. There will be no supports whatever under the balcony to obstruct the view of those sitting below. In order to accomplish this aim, the architect planned that the balcony should be "swung" on one immense girder from which eight large cantilever trusses extend on either side at right angles. The main girder will have a span of 107 feet, will be 8½ feet deep, and will weigh approximately 45 tons. It will be supported at the ends by two 14 inch "H" columns which, together, will be calculated to bear a weight of over 1,040,000 pounds. This monster girder will be four feet longer than the largest single railroad bridge girder in the state. Re-enforced concrete footers 13 by 17 feet and 4 feet deep, will provide a resting place for the steel columns. Six fabricated steel roof trusses, each with a span of 107 feet and a height of 9 feet, will top the building. The distance from the concrete footers to the roof will be 64 feet.

The intricate electrical system will be controlled from a switchboard 8 feet long by 6 feet high. The elaborate stage lighting system will have a dual control board located backstage.

Many other interesting details of construction could be mentioned but for lack of space will not be attempted in this article. The Ohio Alumnus will carry a monthly report of the progress of the building and will further inform its readers of the exact nature of the plans and materials.

Architect's Sketch of Alumni Memorial Auditorium

Above is the architect's sketch of the Ohio University Alumni Memorial Auditorium as it will appear when completed. Plans for the building were approved on Founders' Day, February 18, and bids for its construction opened on April 2. The awarding of the contracts is now under consideration and will be made within a few days.

Funds for the structure were raised partly through the efforts of the Alumni Association and partly through an appropriation from the state legislature made in consideration of a gift of land from the city of Athens.
